

Instructions for Completing an ERM-14 Form

Information for All ERM-14s

- I. Page 1: Mark the box(es) that correspond(s) to the ownership change(s). Provide the effective date of the change. Also, provide the date the change was reported to the insurance provider. See descriptions and instructions below for each type of change.

Name and/or legal entity change—A change occurred to the name or legal status of a business (e.g. change from LLC to INC, Jane Doe to ABC Roofing, Inc., etc.).

Instructions: On page 1 Entity 1, fill in the information for the name and legal status of the business prior to the change. On page 2 Entity 2, fill in the information for the new business name and or legal status.

Sale transfer or conveyance of all or a portion of an entity's ownership interest—A change has occurred to the ownership of a business.

Instructions: On page 1 Entity 1, fill in the information for the business prior to the change. On page 2 Entity 2, fill in the new information for the business.

Sale transfer or conveyance of an entity's physical assets to another entity that takes over its operations—A business purchases another business—or purchases the assets and takes over the operation of a business—and the seller retains the legal business entity name.

Instructions: On page 1 Entity 1, fill in the information for the business that was sold. On page 2 Entity 2, fill in the information for the purchasing business.

Merger or consolidation (attach a copy of agreement)—Two or more businesses consolidate to form a single business.

Instructions: On page 1 Entity 1, fill in the information for one of the merging businesses. On page 2 Entity 2, fill in the information for another merging business. On page 2 Entity 3, fill in the information for the single remaining business after the merger is complete.

Formation of a new entity that acts as, or in effect is, a successor to another entity that: (a) Has dissolved (b) Is non-operative (c) May operate in a limited capacity—A new business is formed or replaces a business that has dissolved, or a new business is formed and the prior business is non-operative or operating in a limited capacity.

Instructions: On page 1 Entity 1, fill in the information for the prior business. On page 2 Entity 2, fill in the information for the new business.

An irrevocable trust or receiver, established either voluntarily or by court mandate—A change has occurred to the business, either voluntarily or by court mandate.

Instructions: On page 1 Entity 1, fill in the information for the business prior to the change. On page 2 Entity 2, fill in the new information for the business.

Determination of combinability of separate entities—Due to one of the above changes, one or more businesses may become combinable for experience rating purposes. See webinar “Basics of Experience Rating Ownership” for further details.

Instructions: Complete an ERM-14 for the change that occurred to require a determination of combinability (e.g., new entity formed, change in ownership, merger, etc.). After the first ERM-14 is complete, fill out a second ERM-14 for the combinability. On page 1 Entity 1, fill in the information for one of the businesses. On page 2 Entity 2, fill in the information for the second business. On page 2 Entity 3, fill in the information for the third business, if applicable. Submit both ERM-14s together.

- II. Page 2: Section B—Answer all questions, which continue on to page 3. If you answered yes to questions 1, 2, or 3, provide the ownership for each entity listed in addition to the information requested in question 4.
- III. Page 3: Provide the ownership information; include percentages of ownership for each business and each owner listed on the ERM-14. General partners are required for the following business: LP or LTD (Limited Partnership), FLP (Family Limited Partnership), and LLLP (Limited Liability Limited Partnership). Provide a narrative for the change that took place in Section C. A signed narrative can also be submitted on the insured’s letterhead and submitted with the ERM-14.
- IV. Page 4: Fill in the information in Section E. The form must be signed by an owner, partner, member, or executive officer. Submit the form and supporting documents to NCCI by one of the following methods:
